

Swansea versus Scunthorpe

The atmosphere was tense with Swansea fighting for a place in the play-offs after six matches without a win and Scunthorpe fighting to keep out of the relegation zone.

It was a good start with Swansea getting the ball forward straight away. After six minutes Shefki Kuqi hit the crossbar and four minutes later again missed a huge chance. The excitement continued with Bauza missing a great chance in the six yard box. Then midway into the first half Swansea's newest player David Edgar scored from a corner, his first goal for the club, to give Swansea the lead. Bauza missed another brilliant chance in the forty-third minute. For Swansea it was their best first half of the season.

After six minutes of the second half, Ashley Williams also scored from a corner to make the score 2-0. The nerves started to disappear from the Swans and also the fans. The swans kept attacking with Kuqi finally scoring his first home goal for Swansea making the score 3-0. The fans were a bit disappointed because he didn't do his famous Swan Dive celebration. My man of the match was David Edgar because of his performance and for his first goal for the Swans.

Because the Swans kept a clean sheet, Dorus broke the club record for the most clean sheets in one season. The record is now an amazing 23.

It was an outstanding performance by the Swans and an important win for them because all the play-off rivals won.
