PUMA YOUTH ALLIANCE

Liam: I owe it to the gaffer

Liam Lawrence has enjoyed the best season of his career – and puts it all down to Stoke City manager Tony Pulis.

The Potters can win promotion from the Championship with a victory over Leicester City on Sunday.

The success would cap a wonderful year for Lawrence, who was one of three Stoke players to be named in the Professional Footballers' Association Championship Team of the Season.

The midfielder has found the net 15 times this season and has been named Stoke's Player of the Year.

Lawrence said: "I owe the manager all my awards and all my goals. He brought me down from Sunderland when things weren't going so well.

"Hopefully we will now get the points we need for promotion. I've worked hard all year for this and if we go up it will top it off."

Ryan Shawcross and Ricardo Fuller were the other Stoke players to find themselves in the team – which was announced at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London.

Fellow professionals voted.

Team of the Year

1. Wayne Hennessy - Wolves
2. Bradley Orr - Bristol City
3. Ryan Shawcross - Stoke
4. Dan Shittu - Watford
5. Paul Robinson - West Brom
6. Marvin Elliott - Bristol City
7. Brian Howard - Barnsley
8. Jonathan Greening - West Brom
9. Liam Lawrence - Stoke
10. Ricardo Fuller - Stoke
11. Kevin Phillips - West Brom

FUNKY MONKEY: H'Angus

RACE ACE

Hartlepool United's H'Angus the Monkey was a swinging success in Britain's biggest mascot race.

He finished second from a field of 85 in the annual event, held at Wetherby race track.

Over 10,000 punters watched H'Angus leg it past other mascots – including Leeds' Lucas the Kop Cat and Morecambe's Christie the Cat. But the winner was Magomi Noodle Box – who was representing a Leeds restaurant.

Race profits were donated to Sue Ryder Cancer Care.

A spokesman said: "H'Angus was brilliant – especially as it was his debut in the race!"

Team of the Year

1. Kieren Westwood - Carlisle
2. Angel Rangel - Swansea
3. Garry Monk - Swansea
4. Danny Livesey - Carlisle
5. Julian Bennett - Nottm Forest
6. Andy Robinson - Swansea
7. Ferrie Bodde - Swansea
8. Kris Commons - Nottm Forest
9. Richie Wellens - Doncaster
10. Jermaine Beckford - Leeds
11. Jason Scotland - Swansea

Famous five make grade

Swansea City were the big winners at the PFA Awards night – as five of their players were named in the League 1 Team of the Season.

Garry Monk, Angel Rangel, Andy Robinson, Ferrie Bodde and Jason Scotland were all honoured for Robert Martinez's side.

And captain Monk believes they deserve the reward after notching a club record 89 points so far this term.

Monk said: "I'm pleased for all the lads who've got in, and to have five of us in there is a great achievement.

"It's nice as a defender to get some recognition and the fact that it's our fellow professionals who voted makes it pleasing for all of us. It's the ultimate compliment you can have.

"It shows what a good season we've had to have five players in the team, but we could easily have had more. People like Leon Britton, Darren Pratley and Dorus de Vries will be disappointed - and there are others as well."

Dons are just four-midable

MK Dons arrived at the PFA Awards having done the double - and left with the quadruple!

Paul Ince's side have won the Johnstone's Paint Trophy, the League 2 title...and now four of their side have been named in the League 2 Team of the Season.

Danny Swailes, Dean Lewington, Keith Andrews and Lloyd Dyer were all rewarded for a magnificent term at stadium:mk.

Dons' assistant manager Ray Mathias said: "This shows the strength of the side, the quality that we've got, and we are absolutely delighted."

Left-back Lewington has been with MK Dons since their formation in 2004.

He said: "It's always nice to be recognised as one of the top players in the league, but we must continue our form next season.

"Promotion was important but we will not get carried away."

Peterborough had goalkeeper Joe Lewis, midfielder George Boyd and forward Aaron McLean named in the side.

McLean said: "As a player it's a bonus to pick up awards like this."

Team of the Year

1. Jon Lewis - Peterborough
2. Craig Pead - Brentford
3. Stephen Foster - Darlington
4. Danny Swailes - MK Dons
5. Dean Lewington - MK Dons
6. Jason Puncheon - Barnet
7. Keith Andrews - MK Dons
8. Lloyd Dyer - MK Dons
9. George Boyd - Peterborough
10. Jack Lester - Chesterfield
11. Aaron McLean - Peterborough

YOUTH BOOST

Huddersfield Town have landed a record contribution to their Academy set-up.

Tanya Jackson and Zoe Blackburn of the Yorkshire Building Society handed club director Roger Armitage a cheque for £140,000 before the game against Tranmere Rovers.

Yorkshire Building Society have donated over £700,000 during their 12-year link up – but this is the highest single payment of all-time.

Armitage said: "With the plans for developing the facilities at Town's training complex now practically complete, this is a great financial boost for the Academy."

Legend Beardsley to star in charity game

Peter Beardsley will be the star of the show at an end of season charity match organised by former Mansfield Town player Jamie Walker.

Walker, 22, whose father Phil is a former Chesterfield star is in remission from cancer and will use local non-league ground Glapwell as the venue for a star-studded match on Sunday.

The Glapwell Football Festival has been taking place all week, with youth tournaments and fundraising events taking place to raise cash for the King's Mills Haematology Department, the Lymphoma Association and the Lymphoma Research Trust.

On Sunday afternoon a Jamie Walker Select XI will take on a Scott Sellars Legends XI - including Beardsley, Nigel Clough and Nigel Jemson.

Kick-off is 3.00pm and there

BEARDSLEY: Star striker will also be a raffle and auction at the game.

Similar charity events have raised £38,000 over the past two years, and admission this weekend is £3 for adults and £1 for children and senior

WALKER: Great cause citizens.

Glapwell also hosted last year's charity match.

Club chairman Colin Hancock said: "We will continue to encourage community support for causes such as Lymphoma

SELLARS: Legends' boss research -- it shows appreciation for the work of the NHS and staff at King's Mill, as well as providing comfort to patients who are now facing the same challenges that Jamie and his family have overcome."

Stoke on TV

There is no need to miss a moment of the Championship's thrilling finale on Sunday.

Sky Sports 2 will follow the match between Stoke City and Leicester City as the Potters aim to secure promotion.

But fans can watch Hull City's visit to Ipswich Town on Sky Sports Interactive, via the red button.

All games in the division kick-off at 2.00pm, and viewers will be kept up-to-date with scores from across the country.

BBC 5Live Extra will also stay in touch with events in the Championship throughout the afternoon.

Stubs bench

Sheffield United players have been working shifts in the club's ticket office!

The club decided to give fans increased motivation to sign up for a season ticket for next term by getting stars behind the counter.

Defender Chris Morgan was one of the men to help out staff behind the scenes.

A Blades spokesperson said: "The players thought it was great. We decided they should come in to help out and the fans were delighted to be served by their heroes.

"They were even answering the phones."

Pop in to Den

Millwall have made pop band McFly their latest signing.

The Lions will host the annual Soccer Six tournament on Sunday May 18.

Celebrities including Will Greenwood, Faithless and The Wombats will be on show.

Former players such as Terry Hurlock, Lee Sharpe and Neville Southall are also set to take part.

Soccer Six founder Mark Abery said: "We've been trying to get McFly to sign up for ages. This is going to be a great day."

Shirt gifts to Gambia

Kids in Gambia are running around in Lincoln City shirts thanks to a visit from students.

A group of 28 people from Bishop Grosseteste University College in Lincoln visited the African country during the final year of their degrees.

The Imps and Lincolnshire FA donated shirts for the students to take out on their trip to the Jolla community in Timani Tenda.

Stef Finch - girlfriend of Lincoln star Lee Frecklington - was one of the girls who made the donation.

She said: "I managed to raise £94 in sponsorship so I could pay for the excess charge on the luggage and when everything was handed over, the chief of the village was truly grateful.

"The rest of the visit consisted of football matches on their sandy pitches and visits to a school."

FANS ON THE MARCH

TOUGH TREK: Fans on walk

Rotherham supporters raised around £10,000 for the club by walking to their League 2 game at Mansfield.

More than 100 loyal Millers followers made the 24-mile trek from Millmoor to Field Mill.

Community Officer Mark Hitchens organised the walk.

He said: "I would like to thank everyone that came along, it was a great success.

"It was one of my proudest moments to walk alongside other fans and raise vital funds."

Sponsorship money is currently being collected, with cash being handed straight to the club.

Local businesses contributed by donating a 12ft banner advertising the Rotherham cause, and bottles of water for the journey.

Free coaches then transported fans back to Rotherham following their 1-0 win.

Hitchens added: "Without the help of all the companies, the walk would have been a lot harder.

"I'd like to thank them all."

GREAT KIDS OF CHINA: Students from the Far East enjoyed their special day out at Coventry City's Ricoh Arena

Chinese delivery!

Coventry City's Ricoh Arena had a Chinese flavour to it earlier this week.

A group of 19 exchange students from China - aged 13 and 14 - arrived at the Sky Blues' Championship home as part of a link up with Alderman Smith School, in Coventry.

A Sky Blues spokesman said: "None of the youngsters had ever been to the UK before, so we were delighted they decided to visit us." English school children have also been benefiting from the club.

Defender Marcus Hall took part in a range of activities to encourage kids to read.

Nursery pupils from Wembrook School in Rugby received toys and a book of nursery rhymes as part of the National Year of Reading campaign.

Hall was also present at a Mobile Library Unit outside the Ricoh Arena and read stories to youngsters.

CLUB PIES WILL HELP ERNIE

PIE MAN: Andrew Nutter

Rochdale are launching their own club pie to raise cash for former star Ernie Cooksey as he battles cancer.

Celebrity chef Andrew Nutter has made a black and white pastry snack, and will hand out samples before tomorrow's game with Shrewsbury.

Fans will be asked to make a donation for the pies, which are made of black pudding, chicken, leek and potato.

Cooksey made 87 appearances for Dale between 2004 and 2007.

He also played for Oldham, who are holding a fundraising match at Boundary Park.

A team of former team mates will against play a John Sheridan XI - including Chris Waddle and John Barnes - on Sunday May 12.

Cooksey, 27, has been diagnosed with skin cancer, and said: "I'd warn anyone to take care in the sun - if I'd understood the risks I would have acted very differently."

Kids get Kickz down at Orient Young players need new digs

Leyton Orient have been keeping kids off the streets by hosting a 5-a-side tournament.

Over the Easter holidays kids aged 14-18 from Waltham Forest, Newham, Tower Hamlets, Barking & Dagenham and Redbridge contested for Inter-Borough titles.

There were 36 teams in total. Custom House Boys won the under-18s title, and Waltham Forest side SH collected the under-14s trophy.

Orient's Community team organised the Kickz event with help from the local councils.

Development Officer Paul Motion said: "All the hard work was worth it though as we had young people of all ages and backgrounds mixing together for the afternoon without any trouble whatsoever."

Port Vale are calling on fans to house their youth team players.

The club need to find digs for players who are forced to move away from home while trying to break through at Vale Park.

A club spokesman said: "Recently one landlady informed the club she and her husband would no longer be able to provide digs for the young Vale players.

"For this reason the club are appealing for digs in the Stoke on Trent area for next season. Fans will be doing the club a huge favour, and at the same time get paid the going rate."

Anyone who can help should contact the club on 01782 655 800.
