Bullseye! Joe darts in to land the big prize

By DEAN JONES

Joe Ledley has hit the bullseye at Cardiff City - by landing the Championship Powerade Player of the Month award for January.

Ledley then revealed his impressive form is down to darts sessions at the Bluebirds' training ground.

He said: "Our new facility is great because we can now stay after training and have a bit of banter. We could not do that last season at the old place, because there was nowhere for us to hang out.

"It's good to spend time together and it is making us really close as a team. We can all have tea and coffee together, and then play some darts.

"I'm feeling good and have been in good goal-scoring form, too. I know the manager wants midfielders to chip in with more goals. I just hope I can continue to do so."

The Wales international has earned a reputation as one of the hardest-working players in the Championship.

Wales manager John

GO JOE: Ledley has been named Player of the Month

Toshack is delighted with the progress Ledley has made.

Tosh said: "Joe played 58 games for Cardiff last season, he was ever-present. But in the games for us at the end of the season he was still bombing up and down his line full of energy, while a few around him were wilting.

"He has progressed very well."

Ledley began 2008 by scoring the only goal against Plymouth Argyle in a win at Ninian Park, before netting the Chairman of the Awards Panel Chris Kamara said: "After a difficult time last season, Joe has started to find some decent form and he's showing consistency. He's chipping in with goals in as many games as he plays."

Search on for new Idol

By DEAN JONES

Tune in to Wycombe Idol - the contest every youngster in Buckinghamshire has been waiting for!

The League 2 club are on the prowl for new talent and holding trials to find Wanderers the next Sergio Torres, Wayne Rooney or Emmanuel Adebayor.

Midfielder Torres is a favourite at Wanderers, and kids in the local area are preparing for the chance to be signed up by the Chairboys.

Trials for Under-8s and Under-9s will take place on February 24 at Wycombe Sports Centre.

Under-10s get their chance at Bisham Abbey on March 23.

A club spokesman said: "We have had a lot of interest and hope we can find a star of the future."

The contest is being run in conjunction with the Bucks Free Press and application forms can be downloaded from the club's official website.

Fill the classroom and register for free tickets

Children can earn free tickets to watch Oldham if they have a fantastic attendance record at school.

Pupils at the town's Westwood and St Hilda's schools have been given the incentive thanks to a project run by Latics and the council.

By the end of the first two terms in 2008 every student will have their attendance records checked to see who has had the least absent days.

The top classes then receive tickets for them all to watch Latics at Boundary Park.

Five pupils from each winning class will also get a free family ticket, which covers two child passes and two adult passes.

Community Cohesion Officer James Mwale said: "This is a great project that looks at encouraging young people to have a positive attitude towards attending school.

"It is also aimed at encouraging young people and their families into coming along and supporting their local team."

Meanwhile, the club competed in the local stage of The Football League's national Under-13 girls' school competition.

Nine teams from the borough battled it out - with Our Lady's coming out on top. The girls go through to the regional finals.

Dowie's tips for coaches

Coventry City are holding a night with local coaches in a bid to ramp up the skills of youngsters in the area.

Sky Blues manager Iain Dowie will be watching alongside Performance Manager John Harbin.

They will offer ideas and insight to grass-roots coaches on how to improve and bring extra value to their own sessions.

The evening takes place at The Alan Higgs Centre on February 18 from 6.30pm. Places are limited and Coventry are inviting applications to be there.

Saddlers' star Sonko brings 'em sunshine

Edrissa Sonko has been a ray of sunshine at Walsall this season.

The Gambia international was nicknamed Mr Sunshine at Dutch club Roda JC - because he always put a smile on the faces of supporters.

Sonko has continued to make fans happy since moving to England in the summer and his midfield performances have helped Walsall into the Play-Offs places.

And four goals in five games have earned Sonko the League 1 Powerade Player of the Month award for January.

He said: "When I was in Holland it wasn't sunny very often, a bit like over here I guess. The Roda fans started calling me Mr Sunshine for making them happy.

"I have played in Belgium with Anderlecht, Roda in Holland, and for Skoda Xanthi in Greece.

"But it was always my dream to play in England and I'm delighted to be at Walsall."

Chris Kamara said: "Edrissa has really come to prominence at Banks's Stadium. He's been in outstanding form and his goals have been vital during January."

SHINING: Walsall's Edrissa Sonko is a hit with the fans

TELLY BELLY

It's the latest half-time game - Through His Belly And Win A Telly! - and Bristol City supporters are mad for it.

Fans have to fire a ball through a target as many times as possible in a minute, with up to three people getting a chance at every home game.

The Belly funny game was brought in when City met Blackpool.

Each winner goes through to a grand final on the last day of the season. The champion will collect a £600 television from Currys.

A City spokesman said: "We try to come up with new ideas to entertain our fans - and this one has gone down a storm."

Strike-ace Danny is heading North fast

HIGH HOPES: Grimsby's Danny North is a star of the future

Hitman Danny North's career is heading north thanks to a lucky break as a teenager.

He has progressed through the Youth Development system at Grimsby after beginning his career as a central defender.

But at the age of 15 he was given a chance as a striker and started scoring goals.

Injuries to youth players provided him with the chance to move quickly through the ranks - and now he is man of the moment at Blundell Park.

North scored four goals in five games last month to become the League 2 Powerade Player of the Month for January.

He said: "This is my first award in senior football, and it means a lot.

"I'd always been a defender as a kid, but I just took my chance when one day I played up front.

"I've never looked back, really. I set a target of 15 goals at the start of the season, and have scored seven so far."

Chris Kamara said: "Danny has shown enough to suggest he has a bright future in the game."

HOLLO BACK

Ian Holloway comes under the TV spotlight tomorrow as he takes on his ex-club Plymouth Argyle for the first time.

Holloway left Home Park in November to become manager at Leicester City.

He will be eager to continue steering his new side away from relegation in front of telly viewers.

The teasing Championship game is live on Sky Sports 1 from 5.15pm on Saturday.

ITV will screen highlights of the weekend's Football League action on The Championship on Sunday. The show gets underway at 10.00am and will take an extended look at Southampton v QPR.

Big Dave's n-ice idea

Big Dave Fitzgerald might get even bigger after coming up with Plymouth Argyle's own-brand ice cream.

For the 18-stone match-day announcer cannot get enough of the stuff!

Home Park favourite Dave suggested the idea after a trip to Barcelona where he spotted bags of club-brand crisps on sale. This got Dave's food juices going and, completely forgetting crisps, he came up with Pilgrims' Passion ice cream.

Pilgrims' Passion tastes of apple crumble and clotted cream and it is made at nearby Langage Farm.

Dave said: "At my weight I'm supposed to be watching what I eat - but I scoffed half a litre of the stuff the other night.

"To say I like it is an understatement. The flavour is lovely, it's so original."

Hundreds of pots were given away ahead of the game with Hull.

Dave added: "I was a bit worried about how it would go down, because the weather was freezing."

Plymouth stars Peter Halmosi and Luke Summerfield were quick to taste the ice cream and branded it "delicious".

Top man Lee aims to be a king of the mountain

My, my pie Delilah

Lee Crooks has a mountain to climb before the start of next season.

The Rochdale defender is trekking up Mount Kilimanjaro to raise money for Macmillan Cancer Support.

He will set out on the journey in June, along with best friend Chris Grayston.

Both men have parents who have battled with cancer. Crooks' father is recovering from the disease.

Crooks said: "Macmillan is a charity that is really close to our hearts. The Macmillan nurses do such a great job, and this seemed a great way to help.

"I have never done anything like it before, so it will be hugely different and important. But it is definitely going to be a challenge.

"My team-mates think it's fantastic, and quite a lot of them have been affected by cancer in some way."

Kilimanjaro is in North-Eastern Tanzania and the TALL TASK: Crooks is preparing for big challenge world's tallest free-standing mountain at 19,340ft.

Crooks, 30, and Grayston, 29, are using their spare time to train for the expedition before heading off on June 25.

Grayston works as a chef in Leeds. His mum Lyn suffered breast cancer in 1998.

He said: "I've done quite a lot of hill walking so I'm not nervous, but I think the acclimatisation will be quite daunting.

"I'm told you can be fit as a fiddle, but if you cannot acclimatise then you really have problems."

The two men hope to raise around £6,500 for the Macmillan charity.

Rochdale supporter and club shirt model Gemma Roddy said: "I wish the guys the best of luck with this.

"It is going to be a very difficult task, but is for a great cause.

"Every one connected with Rochdale is very proud of them for giving this a go. I will be thinking of them when they set off."

My, my, my...Stoke City fans are building up an appetite for away matches this year thanks to a new breakfast club.

Potters supporters can meet up at Delilah's Bar before they set off for away games.

Delilah's Bar swings into action tomorrow ahead of the trip to Wolves.

Breakfast and tea and coffee are being served from 10.30am, and fans can sit and watch Helen Chamberlain presenting Sky's Soccer AM.

Tickets are £2, and the club hope to encourage supporters to banter-up as they travel to away games by coach.

Stoke are also providing 'singing coaches' for fans to voice their support all the way to crunch fixtures.

Head of Media Steve Buxton said: "We are introducing Delilah's for supporters and hopefully they will enjoy the match build up even earlier on a Saturday."

Craig is run hero

Millwall season ticket holder Craig Jones is running the London Marathon to raise cash for Cystic Fibrosis.

Craig, 22, suffers from the condition and is taking part in the gruelling event to raise awareness.

The marathon takes place on April 13.

Craig said: "I've never allowed Cystic Fibrosis to stop me from living life to the full.

"I get along as normally as possible, despite needing physiotherapy and taking enough tablets to make me rattle!

"I take around 50-60 a day, and that's excluding a nebuliser that helps protect me from chest infections.

"My father has run the London Marathon on a number of occasions and I want to follow in his footsteps.

"I want to prove that someone with Cystic Fibrosis isn't always limited."
