BOTTLE BLOND: Watford striker Darius with his Championship Powerade Player of the Month award for September

High-scoring Hendo is such a happy Hornet

Darius Henderson's days at Watford looked numbered in the summer.

He put in a transfer request and was given permission to talk with Preston about a possible move.

But what a difference a couple of months make.

The bottle-blond hitman is the darling of Vicarage Road after penning a new four-year-contract, hitting seven goals in seven games and being named the Championship Powerade Player of the Month for September.

He said: "I put in the request because I didn't feel valued. I came back for pre-season and my mindset was just to work hard.

"The manager then told me that he had accepted an offer from Preston and he believed it was time for me to move on.

"It was a shock but I just listened to him, asked a couple of questions, which he answered, and that was that.

"We have had numerous conversations about the matter since, but I now appear to be part of the club's long-term plans – and I'm pleased about that.

"The fans were a big reason in me staying. They have been tremendous.

"There were numerous times last season when they could have turned on me, but they did the opposite."

Coventry's Michael Mifsud,

Sheffield United's James Beattie and West Brom's Felipe Teixeira were the other contenders for the honour.

But Henderson got the nod after his five goals in five Coca-Cola Championship games helped the Hornets remain unbeaten in September.

Hendo said: "It was an honour just to be nominated alongside three of the division's top quality players, so to win it is especially pleasing.

"As for my current form, I've always believed in my ability so I never felt as though there was any pressure on me.

"It's been well documented that the goals didn't come as readily as I would have liked last season. Maybe I was too anxious and trying too hard. I could actually feel myself tightening up in front of goal.

"But this season I believe I'm going to score every time I step on the pitch."

Chris Kamara, chairman of the Powerade judges' panel, said: "There was lots of speculation Darius might leave Watford, but he's signed a new contract and that seems to have been a real spur for him.

"His goals during September were largely responsible for Watford's excellent unbeaten run which has seen them become the team to beat at the top of the Championship."

A family affair at Addicks

By PAUL JIGGINS

Charlton are launching an investigation – to see whether striker Luke Varney and Chief Executive Peter Varney could possibly be related!

Peter insists the surname was nothing to do with the club paying Crewe £2million for the striker in the summer.

Luke has hit two goals in five Championship starts for second-place Addicks.

He said: "I used to see Peter Varney's name on Sky Sports and wonder whether there was any connection.

"So now someone at the club is looking into our family trees to see if there is a link.

"I've kept quiet about it because I don't want anyone to think I'm here just because of the chief executive.

"We have a bit of banter and, strangely, he always asks how my mum is!"

Dons on telly

Paul Ince's MK Dons kick off this weekend's live TV action.

Ince's table toppers welcome struggling Lincoln to the new stadium:mk for Sunday's Coca-Cola League 2 clash.

Lincoln – on an eight-game winless run – are having a torrid time and sit just one place off rock bottom. Kick off is at 1.30pm on Sky Sports 1.

The Yorkshire derby between Doncaster and Huddersfield follows on the same channel – kick off at 4pm.

The Terriers will be out to avenge last season's 3-0 defeat at Donny – a match which saw three players red carded.

There is more League 1 action on Monday night when Northampton make the short trip down the M1 to Luton for a 7.45pm kick off on Sky Sports 1.

Cas is so handy in the home!

The Elland Road faithful can be forgiven for thinking that Lady Luck is not always on their side.

So it is a good job they have a lucky talisman in Casper Ankergrén.

Despite the Yorkshire giant's trials and tribulations in recent seasons, their Danish keeper boasts a proud – and unlikely – record.

He has never lost a home game with Leeds.

Last season Ankergrén helped Dennis Wise's team win five and draw two of the seven games he played in.

And this term he has appeared in all Leeds' five home victories.

This great show earns Ankergrén the League 1

Powerade Player of the Month award for September.

The Dane, who joined on loan in January, said: "I have not lost at Elland Road so far.

"It was a fortress last season and it is the same now. The fans are giving us everything and we are trying to pay them back."

Ankergrén made the loan from Brøndby permanent in the summer.

He said: "I really wanted to come back and play for Leeds this season.

"I had a few clubs interested during the summer, including one which would have played in Europe. Leeds believed in me when I needed them so I wanted to pay them back and do everything I can to get us up where we belong."

Ankergrén has helped Leeds overturn their 15-point deduction and climb League 1 in front of crowds of more than 25,000.

He admitted: "It's been a crazy start to the season and it's getting crazier.

"If we keep playing well, hopefully we'll get crowds of 40,000.

"This start is like something you dream of – only in our case it's coming true."

Other contenders for the Powerade award were Southend's on-loan Leon Clarke, Leyton Orient's Tamika Mkandawire and Junior Agogo at Nottingham Forest.

Chris Kamara said: "If Casper and his defenders can maintain this sort of form there is no reason why Leeds cannot think about promotion."

Trev's happy at last... and that's no bull

He's been round the block a few times. But after 16 clubs in 12 years Trevor Benjamin is feeling right at home with Hereford.

The journeyman striker has been at the heart of the Bulls' brilliant start to the season.

Four goals in five league matches in September, including strikes to help his side take all three points against Wrexham, Morecambe and Bradford, have earned him the League 2 Powerade Player of the Month award.

Chris Kamara said: "Trevor has been in the game a long time and his experience has been hugely beneficial to Hereford in the first couple of months of the season.

"His four goals in September have helped Graham Turner's side move up to challenge MK Dons at the top of League 2."

He arrived at Edgar Street in the summer and has become a crowd favourite after notching six goals so far.

Director of Football Turner said: "Trevor seems to have been around for ever and it wasn't so long ago that he was costing £1.5 million when he moved to Leicester from Cambridge. People forget he's still only 29.

"He has got a great physical presence about him. He is a big strong player and, sometimes at this level, you need that.

CLEVER TREVOR: Striker Benjamin with his award

"Trevor's been very effective for us so far and we're hoping that will continue."

Benjamin first signed pro with Cambridge United in 1995 and spent five years at the Abbey Stadium before a whirlwind spell of 15 clubs in seven years.

After joining Leicester for £1.5million in July 2000 he was loaned out to Crystal Palace, Norwich, West

Brom, Gillingham, Rushden & Diamonds, Brighton and Northampton before making a permanent switch to the Cobblers in January 2005.

A month later he joined Coventry before he moved on to Peterborough and further loan stints with Watford, Swindon, Boston and Walsall.

Jason Puncheon of Barnet, Dave Hibbert of Shrewsbury and Stockport's Anthony Elding were also short-listed for the Powerade award.

Nigel books in at school

Scunthorpe boss Nigel Adkins is spreading the gospel about the reading scheme Playing With Words.

Adkins, a National Literacy Trust Reading Champion, is passionate about the importance of books and attended a presentation ceremony at the town's Frederick Gough school.

Pupils earned the manager's visit by filling their reading wall chart with a club crest for every book they read.

Adkins said: "It is a great scheme and I'm pleased Scunthorpe United are part of it.

"We are a real community club and our team at Study United do a fantastic job with all our educational programmes.

"The children seemed really enthused by Playing With Words. I can't stress enough how important I think reading is. It was great to see the class working together to earn the reward – and make reading a team sport!"

Teacher Tracey Powell said: "The children were thrilled to bits. Nigel was very patient. They all wanted to get a photograph with him."

Playing With Words is a partnership between The Football League, the Football Foundation, the National Literacy Trust, the Department for Children, Schools and Families, the PFA and Puffin Books.

Chief strikes again with a record 750

Wayne Allison has been a nightmare to work with in the past week. And the bad news for manager Lee Richardson is...Wayne's likely to get even worse.

Chesterfield's veteran player-coach Allison - nicknamed The Chief - has been cock-a-hoop after becoming only the second striker in history after Frank Worthington to clock up 750 League appearances.

The former Sheffield United and Tranmere star reached the milestone as a late substitute in the Spireites' 4-0 victory at Wrexham.

Richardson, a team-mate of Allison's at Halifax when he made his debut in 1987, admitted: "He hasn't stopped going on about it. He's been an absolute nightmare."

"Seriously, though, it is a magnificent achievement and it is pleasing that I am the man responsible for allowing him to reach the landmark."

By PAUL JIGGINS

Allison, 38, said: "It has been great. I have enjoyed it immensely and it is something I take great pride in."

"But it is only a personal thing. What is more important is that we won the game."

Allison has played for nine Football League clubs, including his hometown side Huddersfield.

He is the 16th player to reach 750 League games in England.

Allison has now his sights set on Worthington's record of 757 League appearances for a striker.

Allison said: "That would be nice. I have not got far to go so I will be pestering the gaffer about it."

SUPER FAN GEMMA: In top lads' mag competition

Gemma chases big vote by fans

Rochdale fans are backing Gemma Roddy to win a national beauty competition.

Gemma has made it into FHM magazine's list of the Top 100 High Street Honeyz.

And the dedicated Dale fan wants the club's supporters to vote her into the top five.

Gemma put on a charm offensive at Spotland and met up with fans in Studd's Bar before the Coca-Cola League 2 clash with Bury.

The Lancashire lass is no stranger at the club - she was chosen to model Dale's Centenary Kit.

A club spokesman said: "Oldham have their model Michelle Marsh and now we've got Gemma Roddy. She's already a huge hit with our supporters and everybody at Spotland will be giving her their vote in the High Street Honeyz poll."

Glossy finishers

The new boys are producing great finishes in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy.

Sammy McIlroy's Morecambe fought back from 2-0 down to seal a penalty shootout victory over Port Vale in the Northern Area second-round tie at Christie Park.

McIlroy was delighted by his battling Shrimpers, who are already going great guns in the Carling Cup after putting out Preston and Wolves.

Fellow League 2 new boys Dagenham & Redbridge are through to the Southern Area quarter-finals after a close-fought 1-0 win at League 1 pacemakers Leyton Orient.

The draw for the area quarter-finals will be broadcast on Sky Sports Soccer AM tomorrow.
